There are some who regularly come for prayer before the Eucharist. If you would like to sign up for a specific time for Adoration, please call the rectory.

WE ASK YOUR HEALING PRAYERS FOR...

..... Daniel Grove, Lucille DeMonsi Frank Caruso (friend of Barbara Roser) and all in our parish who are ill or recuperating from an illness. We also ask your prayers for family members who may be caring for spouses or parents who are elderly and unable to live alone.

We warmly welcome all who may be visiting our Church as well as all our parishioners who may have been away for the winter months. If you are new to our Parish or if you would like to register as a member of our Parish, please either fill out one of the registration cards at the Ushers' Tables or call the Rectory at 236-4340

TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE
by Rev. William J. Reilly

“All power in heaven and earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

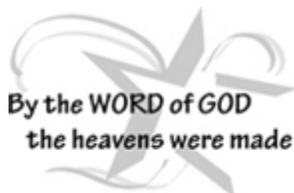

As Christians we profess our belief in a creating Father, the redeeming Son and the power animator, the Holy Spirit. We make the sign of the cross as we bless ourselves at prayer, calling upon the Trinity. As faith filled persons we express our belief in this not understandable mystery. Nothing shakes our faith.

But if I really believe, I accept the challenge given to the apostles in Galilee to leave, to make disciples, to baptize and to teach the great commandment of love.

The mandate is given to all Christians not only to the ordained or professed religious. At times of graduation, people are commissioned as officers in the military or as police officers, and they joyfully take up their task to which they were called. At the time of our baptism we too were commissioned to continue the mission of Jesus, the mission of the church, which is to bring the good news to a needy world. We meet parishioners who 'go on mission' for mercy to Ghana and the Dominican Republic from hospitals or to assist the poor. Did you learn from those who went to Puerto Rico or Florida after the hurricanes, or someone who went to Mexico following the earthquake? The Lord is asking me today to begin living anew, the commission I was given at baptism to go, teach, baptize and observe what I believe is my commission. This is my 'Great Commission.'

HELP DESPERATELY NEEDED

We are still in need of someone who is willing to do some light housekeeping for the rectory, classrooms and hall. This employment is a paid position. Our current employee is leaving at the end of the month and we will need someone immediately. If you are interested, please call the Rectory Office or speak to Fr. Tom for more information.

GRANNY'S ATTIC

Granny's Attic has come and gone for another year. Congratulations to Jeanne DeSantis and her entire crew for all of their hard work. The net profits from the sales were a little over $2250.00 – how wonderful!

We would especially like to thank LaMela's Sanitation for their contribution of a dumpster for our use. LaMela's has been so faithful in donating each and every year we have had our sale – thank you so much!!

Other helpers we would like to thank are the many workers who volunteered a great deal of time – Ann-Marie Coffey, The Runberg Family, Kathy and Diane Corrado, Jean Marie Dayton, and Dave Pulliam.

A special thank you to our Teenagers – Sam Lofaro, Matt DeSantis, Keegan Asch, Ethan Asch, Justin Paola, Sophia Bonanti, Kendall Canfield and Amber Canfield – who are preparing to receive Confirmation and volunteered to assist us.

And last, but certainly not least, we thank all of you for your generous donations and for purchasing all of our useable but unwanted "Treasures."

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST
(Corpus Christi)

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

Moses explained to the people the commandments he had received from God. Upon hearing them, the entire community immediately agreed they would do as God had told them. Moses then sacrificed young bulls and sprinkled the people with their blood, calling it the blood of the covenant they had made.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Jesus did not offer God the blood of sacrifices, but instead he offered up his own blood to cleanse all people of the transgressions they had committed under the first covenant with God. Christ instead brought a new covenant, which, if kept, would lead to eternal life.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus sent two of his disciples to prepare the Passover supper. During the meal he blessed bread and offered it to them saying, "This is my body." He then offered them wine and called it his blood, "the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many."
